

Doncaster and Bassetlaw Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

Percentage of Unplanned Re-attendances		Total time spent in A&E department
% of Unplanned Re-attendances	Description of Data The unplanned re attendance rate for April 2019 was 0.45%; this is the highest we have reported in the last 25 months. The rate for this month remains within the 5% standard. The benchmarking is extracted from the A&amp;E HES Data	Admitted &amp; Non Admitted-Longest Time Recorded	Description of Data The longest time recorded in A&amp;E for all patients for April 2019 was 21:57 Hours, the highest we have reported in the last 25 months was 23:08 for January 2019. The longest time recorded was below the standard of 04:00 Hours. The longest wait Benchmarking is particularly sensitive to poor data quality and definitional issues, which is why some unusually high values may be observed, therefore no benchmarking has been used.
The unplanned re-attendance rate for April 2019 was 0.45%, an increase of (0.14%) patients that made an "unplanned" re-attendance compared to March 2019 where the re-attendance rate was 0.31%. The Trust remains consistently within the 5% standard.	0.45% Rate This Month	21:57 Rate This Month	05:53 Rate This Month
Worse	Compared to last Month	Worse	Compared to last Month
Data Quality	Data Quality	Data Quality	Data Quality
Percentage of people who leave the A&E Department without being seen		Total time spent in A&E department
% of people who leave the A&amp;E Department without being seen	Description of Data The percentage of people who left the A&amp;E Department without being seen for April 2019 was 2.7%; the highest we have reported in the last 25 months was April 2017 at 4.2%. The rate for this month was within the 5% standard.	Admitted-Longest Time Recorded 95th Percentile	Description of Data The longest time recorded (95th Percentile) in A&amp;E for admitted Patients for April 2019 was 08:48 Hours; the highest we have reported in the last 25 months was 09:26 Hours in February 2019. The benchmarking is extracted from the A&amp;E HES Data.
The percentage of people leaving A&amp;E without being seen throughout April 2019 remains at 2.7% the same as it was in February and March 2019. We remain committed to ensuring patients are kept informed of delays during busy times and ensure waiting times are displayed and updated frequently.	2.70% Rate This Month	08:48 Rate This Month	04:02 Rate This Month
Same	Compared to last Month	Worse	Compared to last Month
Data Quality	Data Quality	Data Quality	Data Quality
Time to Initial Assessment (Ambulance Patients only) - 95th Percentile		Time to Initial Assessment (Ambulance Patients only) - 95th Percentile
Time to Initial Assessment (Ambulance Patients only) - 95th Percentile	Description of Data The Time to Initial Assessment (95th Percentile) for ambulance patients for April 2019 was 00:16. This report shows the time (in whole minutes) between patients' arrival and their initial assessment. The longest time we have reported in the last 25 Months was 00:25 in March 2019. The benchmarking data is extracted from the A&amp;E HES Data.	Time from arrival to start of definitive treatment from a decision making clinician (Median)	Description of Data Time from arrival to start of definitive treatment from a decision-making clinician (Median) for April 2019 was 01:00 Hour; the highest we have reported in the last 25 months was 01:05 Hours for December 2017. The rate for this month was within the 01:00 Hour standard. The benchmarking is extracted from the A&amp;E HES Data.
The Time to Initial Assessment - "Time from arrival to time of assessment by a senior clinician" for patients arriving by ambulance in April 2019 was 00:16 mins a reduction of 0.09 mins compared to March 2019 which was 00:25 mins	00:16 Rate This Month	01:00 Rate This Month	90.6% Rate This Month
Better	Compared to last Month	Worse	Compared to last Month
Data Quality	Data Quality	Data Quality	Data Quality
Time to Initial Assessment (Ambulance Patients only) - 95th Percentile		A&E: Maximum waiting time of four hours from arrival to admission/ transfer/ discharge
Time to Initial Assessment (Ambulance Patients only) - 95th Percentile	Description of Data The A&amp;E Maximum waiting time of four hours from arrival to admission/transfer/discharge during April 2019 was 90.6%, 3.04% below March 2019 when it was 93,1% The Trust continues to work really hard to ensure all our patients are seen s quickly as possible.	A&amp;E: Maximum waiting time of four hours from arrival to admission/ transfer/ discharge	Description of Data The A&amp;E Maximum Waiting Time of four hours from arrival to admission / transfer/ discharge during April 2019 was 90.6%. The lowest we have reported in the last 25 months was 87.7% in January 2018. The rate for this month was below the 95% standard. Benchmarking taken from NHS England (Data used for SitRep Returns) Data is quarterly.
The Time to Initial Assessment - "Time from arrival to time of assessment by a senior clinician" for patients arriving by ambulance in April 2019 was 00:16 mins a reduction of 0.09 mins compared to March 2019 which was 00:25 mins	00:16 Rate This Month	90.6% Rate This Month	90.6% Rate This Month
Better	Compared to last Month	Worse	Compared to last Month
Data Quality	Data Quality	Data Quality	Data Quality