

LET'S PUT A MAN ON THE MOON

---

During a visit to the NASA Space Centre in 1962, President Kennedy noticed a janitor carrying a broom. He interrupted his tour, walked over to the man and said: "Hi, I'm Jack Kennedy, what are you doing?"

The janitor responded: "I'm helping put a man on the moon, Mr President."

The janitor understood the importance of his contribution. He truly felt he was a valuable part of something bigger than himself, and his attitude created a feeling of self-confidence in his mission.

He wasn't merely a janitor, he was a member of 1962 NASA Space Team. Every cleaner has a story.
