Help and Support

Evidence search training

If you're searching for articles for your course—don't just Google! - we can train you to plan your search strategy, access top quality healthcare databases, apply limits and filters to your search, citation searching and more. This can be done one to one or in a group session. And if you'd like to learn some of these skills yourself, try these five short e-learning modules:

<https://www.e-lfh.org.uk/programmes/literature-searching/>

E-Resource Training

We offer a wide variety of one-to-one and group training sessions, delivered at a pace and venue to suit you, including:

- NICE Evidence: an overview
- Accessing e-journals and full-text articles
- E-resources, e.g. DynaMed Plus, BMJ Best Practice, Anatomy TV

To arrange a training session, contact either:

Sarah Gardner, Clinical/Outreach Librarian

Tel: 01909 572950, or ext. 572950 e-mail: sarah.gardner11@nhs.net

or

Dave Ashbey, Knowledge & Information Officer

Tel: 01302 642892, or ext. 642892 e-mail: dave.ashbey@nhs.net

Current Awareness

Browzine

Browse all of the journals available through NHS Athens. Link straight to article full text, get updates when new issues are published and build your own bookcase of journals that you browse most often.

Available on PC at browzine.com/libraries/1656/subjects and as an app for tablets and smartphones.

Keeping up to date

We know your time is precious so we offer a wide range of current awareness and alerting services to help keep you up to date—see our website for topics covered. These can be e-mailed out to you or are available on our website. To sign up for these services please speak to a member of staff or see our website. For further information contact dbth.dri.library@nhs.net

Other Services

Books and e-Books

The Knowledge, Library & Information Service has a wealth of books and e-books available to support you in your studies. Check out our library catalogue at <http://dbth.nhslibraries.com>

Request & Document Supply Service

If you can't find the book or journal article you need either in the library, or online, we can usually obtain it for you from another library. You'll need to complete a request form for each item you require (see our website).

If you require any help or assistance please contact library staff at either DRI or Bassetlaw—refer to the cover of this leaflet for contact details.

Additional Information

Computer Access and Study Space

The libraries at DRI and Bassetlaw offer a comfortable environment with areas for quiet study, group work and e-learning.

PCs and Wi-Fi access are available in both libraries.

If you're giving a presentation, a projector and laptop are available to borrow.

NHS OpenAthens

If you haven't already done so, you really should register for an NHS OpenAthens account. This provides you with access to a huge collection of e-resources:

Thousands of full-text journals, a selection of clinical and health information databases and much more. These resources will be available to you 24 hours a day—anywhere you have access to the internet.

You can self-register or update your account details via the NICE Evidence portal at: <https://openathens.nice.org.uk/> or ask Library Staff for assistance.

Opening Hours: Monday to Friday

DRI: 9.00 am- 5.00pm & Bassetlaw: 8.30am—4.30pm

24/7 out of hours access at DRI and Bassetlaw—please ask for details
