

Re: Your request made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

- 1.) How old is the central water treatment equipment used for the renal dialysis wards ? – 2 years.
- 2.) Are there any future plans to replace the central water treatment plant for the renal dialysis wards? – No.
- 3.) Who is the manufacturer of the current central water treatment plant used for renal the renal dialysis wards ? - Fresenius.
- 4.) Who currently maintains the central water treatment plant used for renal the renal dialysis wards? – Fresenius.
- 5.) Do you use single patient RO units for dialysis either within the hospital or for home patient use? – Yes.
- 6.) Are there any future plans to purchase single patient RO units either for hospital use or home dialysis use? – No.
- 7.) Please can you provide the contact details of the person within the Trust that is responsible for the operation and maintenance of the central dialysis water plant? – Andrew Ferguson, andrewferguson@nhs.net.
- 8.) Please can you provide the contact details of the person within the Trust that is responsible for the procurement of single patient dialysis units? – Someone in Procurement?

If you have more than one hospital site – could you kindly give me the above requested information for all hospitals within your group.