After careful consideration, we have decided to withhold the requested information based on the following exemptions under the Freedom of Information Act 2000:

1. Section 36(2)(b) - Prejudice to the effective conduct of public affairs

The information you have requested regarding future staffing predictions involves data that is still subject to ongoing strategic planning processes. Releasing this information at this stage could undermine the ability of NHS organisations to engage in effective forward planning, particularly as staffing decisions and related planning are influenced by evolving workforce trends, budgetary constraints, and national health policy changes. Disclosure could potentially result in public misunderstanding or unnecessary speculation that could hinder organisational flexibility and impact the decision-making process.

If you are not satisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to request an internal review. Requests for an internal review should be submitted within 40 working days from the date of this response, and should be addressed to: [Internal review contact details].

If you remain dissatisfied after the internal review, you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). The ICO can be contacted at:
