Where figures are fewer than five, these have been replaced with '#'. This is because disclosure of small numbers, particularly when combined with other information, could lead to the identification of individuals. This information is therefore withheld under Section 40(2) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, as it constitutes personal data and disclosure would be unfair and unlawful under UK GDPR.

If you are not satisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to request an internal review. Requests for an internal review should be submitted within 40 working days from the date of this response, and should be addressed to d.wraith@nhs.net.

If you remain dissatisfied after the internal review, you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). The ICO can be contacted at:
